

Guest Speakers

Armando Cervantes: Dr. Erin Barisano is the Superintendent of Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Orange. She is a proud product of Catholic education from elementary to graduate school and believes strongly in the transformative experience of Catholic education. Dr. Erin has presented at educational conferences across the country, has led a variety of spiritual retreats, and serves on numerous boards and committees to help further the mission and scope of Catholic education. In her down time, she enjoys traveling, cooking, and spending time with her husband and two children.

Dr. Erin Barisano: Dr. Erin Barisano is the Superintendent of Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Orange. She is a proud product of Catholic education from elementary to graduate school and believes strongly in the transformative experience of Catholic education. Dr. Erin has presented at educational conferences across the country, has led a variety of spiritual retreats, and serves on numerous boards and committees to help further the mission and scope of Catholic education. In her down time, she enjoys traveling, cooking, and spending time with her husband and two children.

Tricia Tembreull: Tricia Tembreull is a California girl with a boundless passion for life. After over two decades of ministering to teens and youth ministers as a trainer, ministry mentor, and speaker through the Life Teen movement, Tricia has chosen to turn her attention to serve college adults as Campus Minister at USC Caruso Catholic Center. Her zeal for scripture and Saint John Paul II's Theology of the Body helps create a strong foundation for her spirituality and sacramental faith. As a devotions writer and retreat host and speaker for Blessed Is She, she continues to develop her artistry for writing and speaking about her beloved Catholic faith. She loves adventure and seeks it everywhere she goes. As an avid foodie, she enjoys testing new recipes out on friends and family, gathering them around the table to encounter Christ in one another and be drawn to the satisfying unity we crave in the Eucharist.

Fr. Duy Le: Pastor at San Francisco Solano Catholic Church in Rancho Santa Margarita in the Diocese of Orange. Fr. Duy was born in Portland, Oregon but grew up in Orange County. He is one of 5 children with 4 younger sisters.

Fr. Duy graduated from CSUF with a BA in Business Administration with an emphasis in Information Systems. He later went to the seminary in Menlo Park, CA at St. Patrick's Seminary.

Fr. Ian Bustonera: Chaplain at Rosary Academy and member of the Disciples of Mary Religious Community. Fr. Ian is in his sixth year as Chaplain for Rosary Academy. Fr. Ian has served at many local parishes, St. Martin de Porres, St. Irenaeus, St. Pius V, St. Justin Martyr, and St. Timothy's.

Eileen Kearns: Executive Director of Campus Ministry at Rosary Academy. Eileen has spent over 40 years in ministry to youth and young adults in both the Diocese of Orange and the Arch Diocese of Los Angeles. Eileen's involvement with the Life Team movement enhanced her love for and understanding of the power of the Eucharist - her belief in the "real presence" has truly changed her life.